

EPIC New Connections Grant Application

EPIC New Connections Grants support innovative projects that are fostered through cross-disciplinary collaboration across at least two research groups. Successful proposals will feature joint lead investigators from different university divisions and/or departments and/or EPIC partner institutions coming together for their first significant research collaboration. The joint investigators will tackle an infectious disease research question by applying innovative methodologies that capitalize on their different areas of expertise for impactful outcomes.

Application Checklist

Please submit all supporting materials as a single, combined PDF document via email to epic@utoronto.ca. PDF documents should follow the naming convention:
